LEGISLATION FOR HAWAII

The Cullem and Hitt Propositions Now Before Congress.

While Similar in Many Respects, Opinion Differs Over Some of the Provisions-The Dole Faction Favors the Senate Bill-The House Measure Urged by the Opposition.

The Cullom Hawaiian bill, which is now efore the Senate as "unfinished business, Hitt. However the points of divergence are sufficient to have already caused a difference of sentiment in the islands. The don't hear that old time worn excuse, "We Dole faction supports the bill introduced by Mr. Cullom, the anti-Dole people espous ing the one introduced by Mr. Hitt.

> Their opponents claim that it places all the offices and all the power in the hands of the Dole faction.

One point of difference between the two measures lies in the qualification for citi zenship. The House bill declares: "That all persons who were citizens of the Republic of Hawaii on August 12, 1898, are hereby declared to be citizens of the Unit-ed States and citizens of the Territory of of Hawaii.

The Senate bill says briefly: "All persons who were citizens of the Republic of Hawaii on August 12, 1898, are hereby declared to be citizens of the United States."

The fifth section of the House bill in regard to the property qualifications of voters, provides that prior to registration the ers, provides that prior to registration the voter must have paid the poll tax of $1 for the current year due by him to the Government. The Cullom bill provides that the voter must have paid all of the taxes due by him to the Government.

The main point that seems to trouble the unti-Dole people is the provision in regard to public lands which is set forth in the Callom bill as follows:

"That all sales, grants, leases, and other lisposition of public domain and agreements concerning the same and all franchises granted by the Hawaiian Govern-ment in conformity with the laws of Ha-waii prior to September 11, 1899, are hereby ratified and confirmed."

The House bill states that all sales, grants, leases, and other dispositions of the public domain, and agreements concerning the same, shall be reported in writing each month to the Secretary of the Interior, who shall have authority to confirm, reverse, modify, suspend, and annul any of said transactions; that all of said transactions so reported upon which no action shall be taken by the Secretary of the Interior within sixty days from the filing of such reports in his office shall thereupon and thereby be confirmed and ratified.

Ferther provisions in the Senate bill are: Teat the laws of Hawaii not in consistent with the Constitution or laws of the United States shall continue in force: that the offices of President. Ministers of Proreign Affairs. Interior, Finance, and Public Instruction, Auditor General, Surveyor General, and Marshal of the Republic of Hawaii, are abolished; that the legislature power of the Territory shall vest in two Houses—the Senate and House of Representatives; that members of the Legislature shall receive $400 for each regular session, and mileage at the rate of ten cents a mile each way: that the Senate shall consist of fifteen members who shall hold office four years, and the House of thirty members, to hold office two years. It further provides that Senators must be citizens of the United States, have attained the ege of thirty years, and have resided in the Hawaiian Islands three years, with the same qualifications for Representatives except that they must have at-dent by and with the coment of the Senate, and to hold office four years.

The Governor is to appoint the Chief Justice and Justices of the Supreme Court, the Judges of the Circuit Courts, the Attorney General, and other officials. GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Plea in the Mollie Harris Case Accepted. Mollie Harris, colored, who is on trial fo he murder of Alice Queenan, also colored, on October 9 last, today testified in her own

> Her story of the fatal affray was brief and to the point in all its details. She stated that she lived, both at Kate Jackon's house in Cullinane's Alley and at her uncle's, about a mile away, across the James Creek Canal. Prior to the night on which Alice Queenan was killed the witnes said she had trouble with her and that the deceased had threatened to kill the witness She then told the circumstances of the rouble which immediately preceded the cilling. Her story was substantially the same as that told by the witnesses by the Government, except that she claimed that there was a long and hot fight in which the eceased and her friends assaulted the wit-ad when she left the alley to go to her ancle's house in southeast Washington.

After she cut Alice Queenan, the witness tated that she handed the knife to her riend, Della Dyson, who placed it in the ining of her cape where it was found by he police when she was arrested. Cross-examination by the prosecuting atcorney failed to develop anything new in the witness's testimony. The evidence of the accused closed the case so far as the introduction of testimony was concerned. Counsel for the defence submitted to the court seventeen requests for instruction to the jury and the Government offered seven similar requests.

After argument over the charge to the jury, the prisoner's counsel, on behalf of the accused, withdrew the pica of not guilty of murder, and entered a plea of guilty of manslaughter. The plea was ac-cepted by the court, and under instruc-tions the jury returned a verdict against manded to jail for sentence.
